

Refund Policy

No refund will be given if someone:

- fails to attend camp
- is sent home for disciplinary action
- is sent home for inattention to safe Scouting standards
- or chooses to leave camp early

Refunds for extenuating* circumstances must be requested in writing to the Great Alaska Council Service Center and received no later than one week following the scheduled week of camp. Cancellation fees will apply after May 1, 2017.

Refund Schedule

- Requested by May 1, 2017 will receive 100% of fees paid
- Requested by May 15, 2017 will receive 75% of fees paid
- Requested between May 16-31, 2017 will receive 50% of fees paid
- No refunds beginning June 1, 2017

–Refund requests are processed AFTER camp is concluded

*Extenuating circumstances include, but not limited to: medical in nature, major disruptions in the family life like death of a family member or divorce. Extenuating circumstances does not include sports related activities including tournaments or sport camps or family vacations.